

PUTTING YOU IN THE PICTURE

■ ICRF members with Mr Singh, Indian School chairman Abraham John and Faber Castell general manager Sanjay Ban and other officials at the event

Art carnival winners named

WINNERS of an art carnival were announced yesterday at the Bahrain Keraleeya Samajam (BKS) in Segaiya.

More than 900 students competed in the fifth annual Faber-Castell Spectra 2013 last month and trophies were handed over by Indian Embassy labour and community welfare first secretary Ram Singh in the presence of Indian Ambassador Dr Mohan Kumar.

The festival was held under the patronage of the embassy and was organised by the Indian Community Relief Fund (ICRF).

Winners were in three age groups – five to eight years, eight to 13 years and 13 to 18 years.

The winning entries and other outstanding creations by the children were also made into 2014 wall and desktop calendars, which were unveiled yesterday.

The schools that took part were Al Noor International School, The Asian School, The Indian School, The New Indian School, Quality Education School, New Millennium School, The Philippine School, Al Mahd Day Boarding School, Sneha, The New Horizon School, The Sacred Heart School and Ibn Al Hytham Islamic School.

■ Design industry experts gave a talk at Al Riwaq Art Space, in Adliya. Design Stories was presented by Design Days Dubai fair director Cyril Zammit. Haraka founder Mona Yateem and Nuqat co-founder Tala Saleh also spoke. It marked the launch of the Design Days Dubai roadshow, which will travel around different countries to give workshops. The fair, which will be held in Dubai in March, will feature 34 galleries from across the world, including regional designers. Above, Mr Zammit, second from right, with panelists at the event.